

Physical activity reconstruction in individuals and past populations

Tools, methods & applications

Université de Bordeaux 30.06
2026

Building B6, Amphitheatre
Campus Bordes

Programme

13h30 Welcome coffee and tea

14h00 Linking Skeletal Structure to Behavior: Life History and Health

Timothy Ryan (Pennsylvania State University, USA)

14h30 Hard Work or Bone Formers? Genetic Entanglements with Entheseal Changes

Cynthia Wilczak (San Francisco State University, USA)

15h00 Human Athletic Paleobiology: Using Modern Athletes to Interpret Prehistoric Human Activity and Adaptability

Jay Stock (Western University, Canada)

15h30 Break

16h00 The Neandertal Way of Death

Emma Pomeroy (University of Cambridge, UK)

16h30 Entangled Bodies: Class, Identity, and the Body in Post-Medieval England

Rebecca Gowland (University of Durham, UK)

17h00 Discussion

Practical information

Location

*Building B6, Amphitheatre
Campus Bordes, Bordeaux University*

Access

*By tram: Line B, stop François Bordes
By car: Allée Geoffroy Saint-Hilaire, Pessac*

Zoom link available upon request

If you are planning to attend, please let us know (for organisational purposes)

Organisation

*Christopher J. Knüsel (PACEA - UMR 5199)
Sébastien Villotte (Eco-anthropologie - UMR7206)
Elle Liagre (PACEA - UMR 5199)*

Contact: christopher.knusel@u-bordeaux.fr
Poster design: Ana Arzelier

